

Performer Terms and Conditions

1. ELIGIBILITY

- a. All Performers must be registered with the festival prior to their performance.
- b. All performers (inc. open area performers and buskers) can perform only in the place designated to them. Setting up anywhere else is NOT permitted.
- c. A sound engineer and amplification are only available for stage performers: open area performers and buskers must have all their own equipment and amplification off the stage is NOT allowed.
- d. Allocated performance timeframes are INCLUSIVE of your setup, performance and pack down time. Performers are requested not to run over their allocated time.
- e. Please allow ample time to find parking and for dropping off equipment. All performers should be ready and in place 10 minutes before their allocated performance time.
- f. The drop-off zone for performers and their equipment is on Pine Terrace at the rear of the main stage. This zone is reserved for drop-off only and cannot be used for storage or parking.
- g. Upon arrival at Darlington Oval all performers are asked to report to the Performing Arts Coordinator at the Sound Engineer's desk.
- h. Performers can discuss sound requirements with the sound engineer at least 15 minutes before performance time.

- i. The change tent/Green Room, if required, is at the rear of the main stage. Please note, there is no security provided for this area.

2. Insurance and Liability

All performers must have public liability insurance for the duration of their performance times (including set-up, performance and pack down). This must be available to present to the Performing Arts Coordinator on the day of your performance or email your policy certificate to performingarts@darlingtonartsfestival.com ahead of time. Performers must acknowledge and accept that the Darlington Arts Festival, its committee, officials and volunteers accept no liability for loss of, damage to or theft of, equipment (including costumes) or personal property.

Publicity and advertising

All performers agree to permit photographs of their performance taken by Festival photographers to be used for Darlington Arts Festival publicity and promotion purposes.

If you have any questions, please contact the Performing Arts Coordinator at performingarts@darlingtonartsfestival.com